Anticipating Zion

(1 Chronicles 11:4-9) "And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land. {5} Then the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You shall not come in here!" Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion (that is, the City of David). {6} Now David said, "Whoever attacks the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain." And Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and became chief. {7} Then David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called it the City of David. {8} And he built the city around it, from the Millo to the surrounding area. Joab repaired the rest of the city. {9} Then David went on and became great, and the LORD of hosts was with him."

(Isaiah 2:3) "Many people shall come and say, "Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, To the house of the God of Jacob; He will teach us His ways, And we shall walk in His paths." For out of Zion shall go forth the law, And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem."

(Hebrews 12:22-24) "But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to an innumerable company of angels, {23} to the general assembly and church of the firstborn who are registered in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, {24} to Jesus the Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better things than that of Abel."

There are three aspects of Zion that we should be anticipating as Christians:

God Himself will be with them and be their God. {4} "And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying.
