

Psalm 119:113-120 – My Flesh Trembles for Fear of You

Intro – Even though the word is not found, Psalm 119:113-120 is about idolatry. It is a sin that all of us deal with sometimes, struggling to find our deepest satisfaction in something other than God. The Bible often refers to this as “double-mindedness.” The psalmist begins with a declaration about double-mindedness and reflects on how the Word of God helps him in his battle with it. He gives us six things in this psalm that teach us about fighting the fight against idolatry.

I. Complete _____ to God and His Word (v. 113).

II. God Himself is Our _____ and _____ (v. 114).

III. “Bad _____ Corrupts Good _____” (v. 115).

IV. God and His Word are the Believer’s _____ against _____ (v. 116-117).

V. Meditate on God’s Just _____ Against Those Who Willfully _____ (v. 118-119).

VI. The Fear of the Lord is the Ultimate _____ of the _____ from Idolatry (v. 120).

Psalm 119:113-120 – My Flesh Trembles for Fear of You

Intro – Even though the word is not found, Psalm 119:113-120 is about idolatry. It is a sin that all of us deal with sometimes, struggling to find our deepest satisfaction in something other than God. The Bible often refers to this as “double-mindedness.” The psalmist begins with a declaration about double-mindedness and reflects on how the Word of God helps him in his battle with it. He gives us six things in this psalm that teach us about fighting the fight against idolatry.

I. Complete _____ to God and His Word (v. 113).

II. God Himself is Our _____ and _____ (v. 114).

III. “Bad _____ Corrupts Good _____” (v. 115).

IV. God and His Word are the Believer’s _____ against _____ (v. 116-117).

V. Meditate on God’s Just _____ Against Those Who Willfully _____ (v. 118-119).

VI. The Fear of the Lord is the Ultimate _____ of the _____ from Idolatry (v. 120).