

Psalm 119:137-144 – My Zeal Has Consumed Me

Intro – In Psalm 119:137-144, the psalmist picks up on a theme running through the previous eight verses, where he is impassioned for God’s Word and disturbed by people who ignore it. Each verse seems to lead up to the final petition in verse 144 that he might understand God’s Word. On his way to that final petition, the psalmist gives us eight foundations for the living of the Christian life.

I. God _____ Who He Says He _____ (v. 137).

II. God’s _____ is Like _____ (v. 138).

III. God’s People Have a _____ for His Word (v. 139).

IV. God’s People can _____ on His Word (140).

V. God’s People Don’t Mind Being Held in _____
Because of His Word (v. 141).

VI. God’s Word is Unchangeably _____ and _____ in All Respects (v. 142).

VII. God’s Word can See Us Through in _____ of _____ (v. 143).

VIII. God’s Word is _____ Forever (v. 144).
