

Psalm 119:153-160 – The Entirety of Your Word is Truth

Intro – In Psalm 119:153-160, the Psalmist is once again dealing with affliction, and is crying out to God. In this passage, he reveals that the source of His hope is not in himself, but in God and His Word. The psalmist teaches us five things that the Word of God says to us to help us in our affliction.

I. God _____ about Your Affliction (v. 153).

11. God is the One Who Gives _____ to those in Affliction (vv. 154, 156, 159).

III. All of God's Word is _____ (v. 160).

IV. God's _____ is Near to Those Who Love His _____ (vv. 157, 159).

V. Our Fundamental hope is in God's _____, _____ and _____ (vv. 156, 159, 160).

Psalm 119:153-160 – The Entirety of Your Word is Truth

Intro – In Psalm 119:153-160, the Psalmist is once again dealing with affliction, and is crying out to God. In this passage, he reveals that the source of His hope is not in himself, but in God and His Word. The psalmist teaches us five things that the Word of God says to us to help us in our affliction.

I. God _____ about Your Affliction (v. 153).

11. God is the One Who Gives _____ to those in Affliction (vv. 154, 156, 159).

III. All of God's Word is _____ (v. 160).

IV. God's _____ is Near to Those Who Love His _____ (vv. 157, 159).

V. Our Fundamental hope is in God's _____, _____ and _____ (vv. 156, 159, 160).