

Principles from the Proverbs

(The Responsibilities of Children)

Intro – The Book of Proverbs is written with a focus on instructing those who are young. Solomon wrote many of his Proverbs with a bent towards instructing his own son. The actions and attitudes of children have a great effect on their parents and families. Much is said about the responsibilities of children in listening and heeding their parents' wisdom.

I. Listen to Your parents (Prov. 23:22).

A. The Bible Commands Ongoing _____ of One's Parents.

B. The _____ of a Child may be Measured by How Well He _____ to His Parents (Prov. 13:1; 15:5).

1. A wise son heeds his parents' _____.
2. A son who will not listen to his parents is a _____ and a _____.

II. Get Wisdom and Instruction from your Parents (Prov. 5:1-2).

A. _____ Submit to Careful _____ of Your Parents' Understanding.

B. Gain the _____ of Your Parents' Wisdom (Prov. 6:20-22; 4:20-22).

1. Their wisdom will keep you _____.
2. Their wisdom will become your constant _____.
3. Their wisdom will make your life _____ (Prov. 4:20-22).

Principles from the Proverbs

(The Responsibilities of Children)

Intro – The Book of Proverbs is written with a focus on instructing those who are young. Solomon wrote many of his Proverbs with a bent towards instructing his own son. The actions and attitudes of children have a great effect on their parents and families. Much is said about the responsibilities of children in listening and heeding their parents' wisdom.

I. Listen to Your parents (Prov. 23:22).

A. The Bible Commands Ongoing _____ of One's Parents.

B. The _____ of a Child may be Measured by How Well He _____ to His Parents (Prov. 13:1; 15:5).

1. A wise son heeds his parents' _____.
2. A son who will not listen to his parents is a _____ and a _____.

II. Get Wisdom and Instruction from your Parents (Prov. 5:1-2).

A. _____ Submit to Careful _____ of Your Parents' Understanding.

B. Gain the _____ of Your Parents' Wisdom (Prov. 6:20-22; 4:20-22).

1. Their wisdom will keep you _____.
2. Their wisdom will become your constant _____.
3. Their wisdom will make your life _____ (Prov. 4:20-22).